

Walking Buses

What is a walking bus?

A group of children walking to school together in the morning. They are supported by an adult at the front and at the back of the group, acting as the 'driver, and 'conductor' of the walking bus.

Why should children join a walking bus?

Walking is a great form of exercise for children, and helps to improve air quality and road safety near the school. The walking bus provides a safe, healthy, and fun way for children to get to school, start their day, and build good habits for the future.

How can children join the walking bus?

Those who drive or walk to school can drop their children off at the start of the walking bus. A map of the route and a timetable of the bus will be shared with parents.

How can I support the walking bus?

You can support the walking bus by encouraging children to take part, walk with the children alongside the walking bus, or volunteer to act as the 'driver' or 'conductor' leading the walk.
